

YOUR DANCE

I NDILCHUIMHNE AR JOHN FITZGERALD

Comp. Úna Ní Fhlannagáin

9/10/2019

♩ = 45

1.You
2.You

5

left us a li - ttle too soon, _____ You left us your dim - ples and curls, _____ The 7

left us a li - ttle too fast, _____ But I'll promise of a life - long ro - mance, _____ Your

YOUR DANCE

9

9 leave the light on, and the door on the latch, for I style, and your grace, and your light - heart - ed laugh, — Be -

11

11 know fore you've just gone out for a dance
you stepped out to the dance

13

13 And is it a waltz, or a jive, — that you're

8va -----

18

18 dan - cing right now, through the night, — I

8va -----

20

hope that you're twirl - ing, and skipp - ing, and whirl - ing, and 20

8

22

smil - ing with your twin - kly eyes

22

3. I
4. So you

8va

24

miss you more than I can say, but left us a song in our hearts, The 24

26

I'm grate - ful we knew in cour - age to take ev - 'ry advance, so you chance, The 26

28

could swing a shoe and bid us all adi - eu, for you know-ledge that you will love us, through and through, and the 30

knew mem' - ry of going to the dance _____
 you'd be of you and your dance _____

D.S. al Fine

32

So I'll

35

stay here, and dream of your dance _____